

The Institute of International Payments

NACHA - The Electronic Payments Association and the Global Payments Forum is proud to announce:

The Institute of International Payments

November 18 - 20, 2008

Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta
Atlanta, Georgia

Pre-Conference Workshop: Examining the Implications of the International ACH Transaction

November 17, 2008

Click here for agenda and session information
Click here for registration information

What is The Institute of International Payments?

The Institute of International Payments is designed to provide professionals with a high-quality education foundation for understanding payments in a global context, encompassing the key principles, concepts, infrastructures, practices, issues, and developments. This unique learning experience is intended to complement existing knowledge of payment concepts and issues in a domestic environment.

What is the curriculum focus?

The Institute of International Payments offers an intensive 2 1/2 day curriculum taught by experienced practitioners drawn from leading organizations engaged in international payments. Program instructors deliver information in a neutral and unbiased manner covering a variety of topics including:

- International Payments Fundamentals
- International ACH Payments
- International Formats & Applications
- Global Clearing & Settlement
- SWIFT
- International Standards & Straight-Through Processing
- Low-Value Global Payments
- High-Value Global Payments

- Foreign Exchange & Currency Principles
- The Purpose & Role of CLS
- Liquidity Management
- International Trade Facilitation
- Legal & Regulatory Environment
- Risk Management for the Global Environment
- Market Trends & Developments
- Interdiction & Enforcement

What does my registration fee cover?

- A single hotel room for 3 nights (Monday night through Wednesday night)
- Breakfasts, lunches, refreshment breaks, and receptions
- 2 1/2 days of instruction and course materials

Who should attend?

Experienced payments professionals who are interested in expanding their knowledge base and advancing their careers into the global payments arena.

Hurry! Space is limited and last year's program sold out quickly. Register today! For more information, call NACHA's Member Services at 703-561-1100 or email info@nacha.org. Remember, the registration fee includes a single hotel room for 3 nights (Monday night through Wednesday night). Discounted registration fees available until September 5, 2008.

See you in Atlanta!

For more information on NACHA - The Electronic Payments Association, visit www.nacha.org