

WAUSAU Financial Systems and Peoples United Bank NE to Discuss Lockbox Offerings at TAWPI 2008

Mosinee, Wis. – Aug. 19, 2008 – Matt Dowds, Product Manager – Remittance Solutions for WAUSAU Financial Systems (WFS), will present with Janet Vita, Vice President Lockbox Manager of Peoples United Bank NE at TAWPI's annual conference in Orlando, Aug. 24-27. WFS is the industry leader in payments, receivables and document processing.

This featured session, Increasing Lockbox Offerings Through State-of-the-Art Technology, will focus on how Peoples United Bank NE has reduced manual keying, enhanced its accounts receivable functions and provided additional billing features which resulted in its customers driving increasing revenue in new markets. Peoples United Bank NE provides customers with a secure web-based browser for the review of exception items, Full Page Optical Character Recognition, all on a common platform for both retail and wholesale lockbox.

The Association for Work Process Improvement (TAWPI) Annual Forums and Expo attracts over 1,500 operations, business and technology professionals from the payments processing industry.

“Financial institutions of all sizes are able to expand lockbox offerings and provide customers detailed remittance information, while increasing operational efficiencies, growing market share and generating new revenue,” said Dowds. “The combined presence of thought leadership and sponsorship displayed at industry conferences such as this highlights WAUSAU Financial Systems’ continued commitment to provide communication on the most effective payment processing solutions in the market, as proven through our leadership in the industry and successful customer relationships. We look forward to sharing advances in lockbox technology with Peoples United Bank NE and discussing business issues that impact lockbox operations.”
